

Which Country Consistently Leads Global Coffee Quality Rankings?

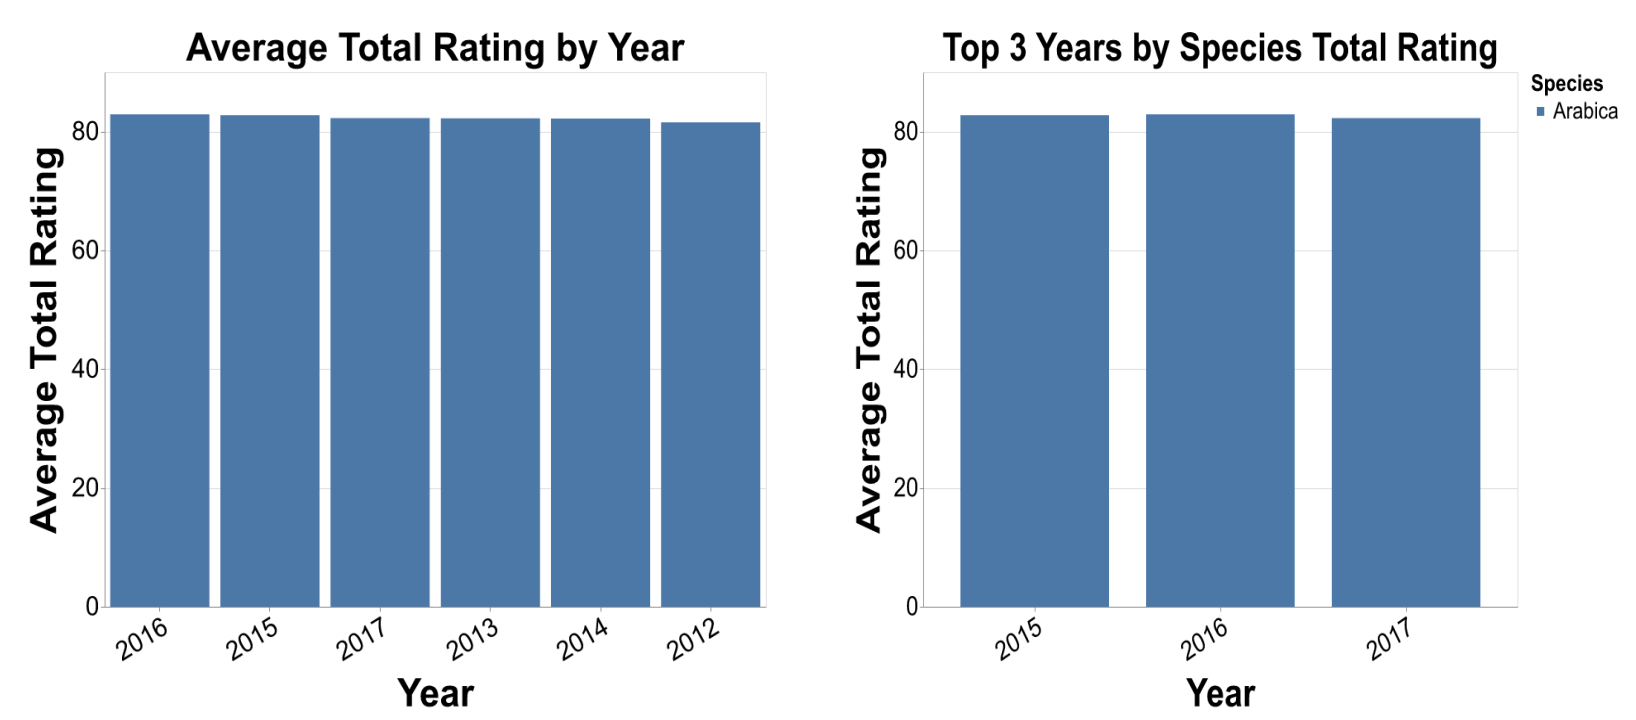

INTRODUCTION

Coffee ratings vary by country and year, with Ethiopia leading in quality. This poster analyzes average total ratings from 2012 to 2017 across countries. We highlight top and bottom performers and species trends in key regions.

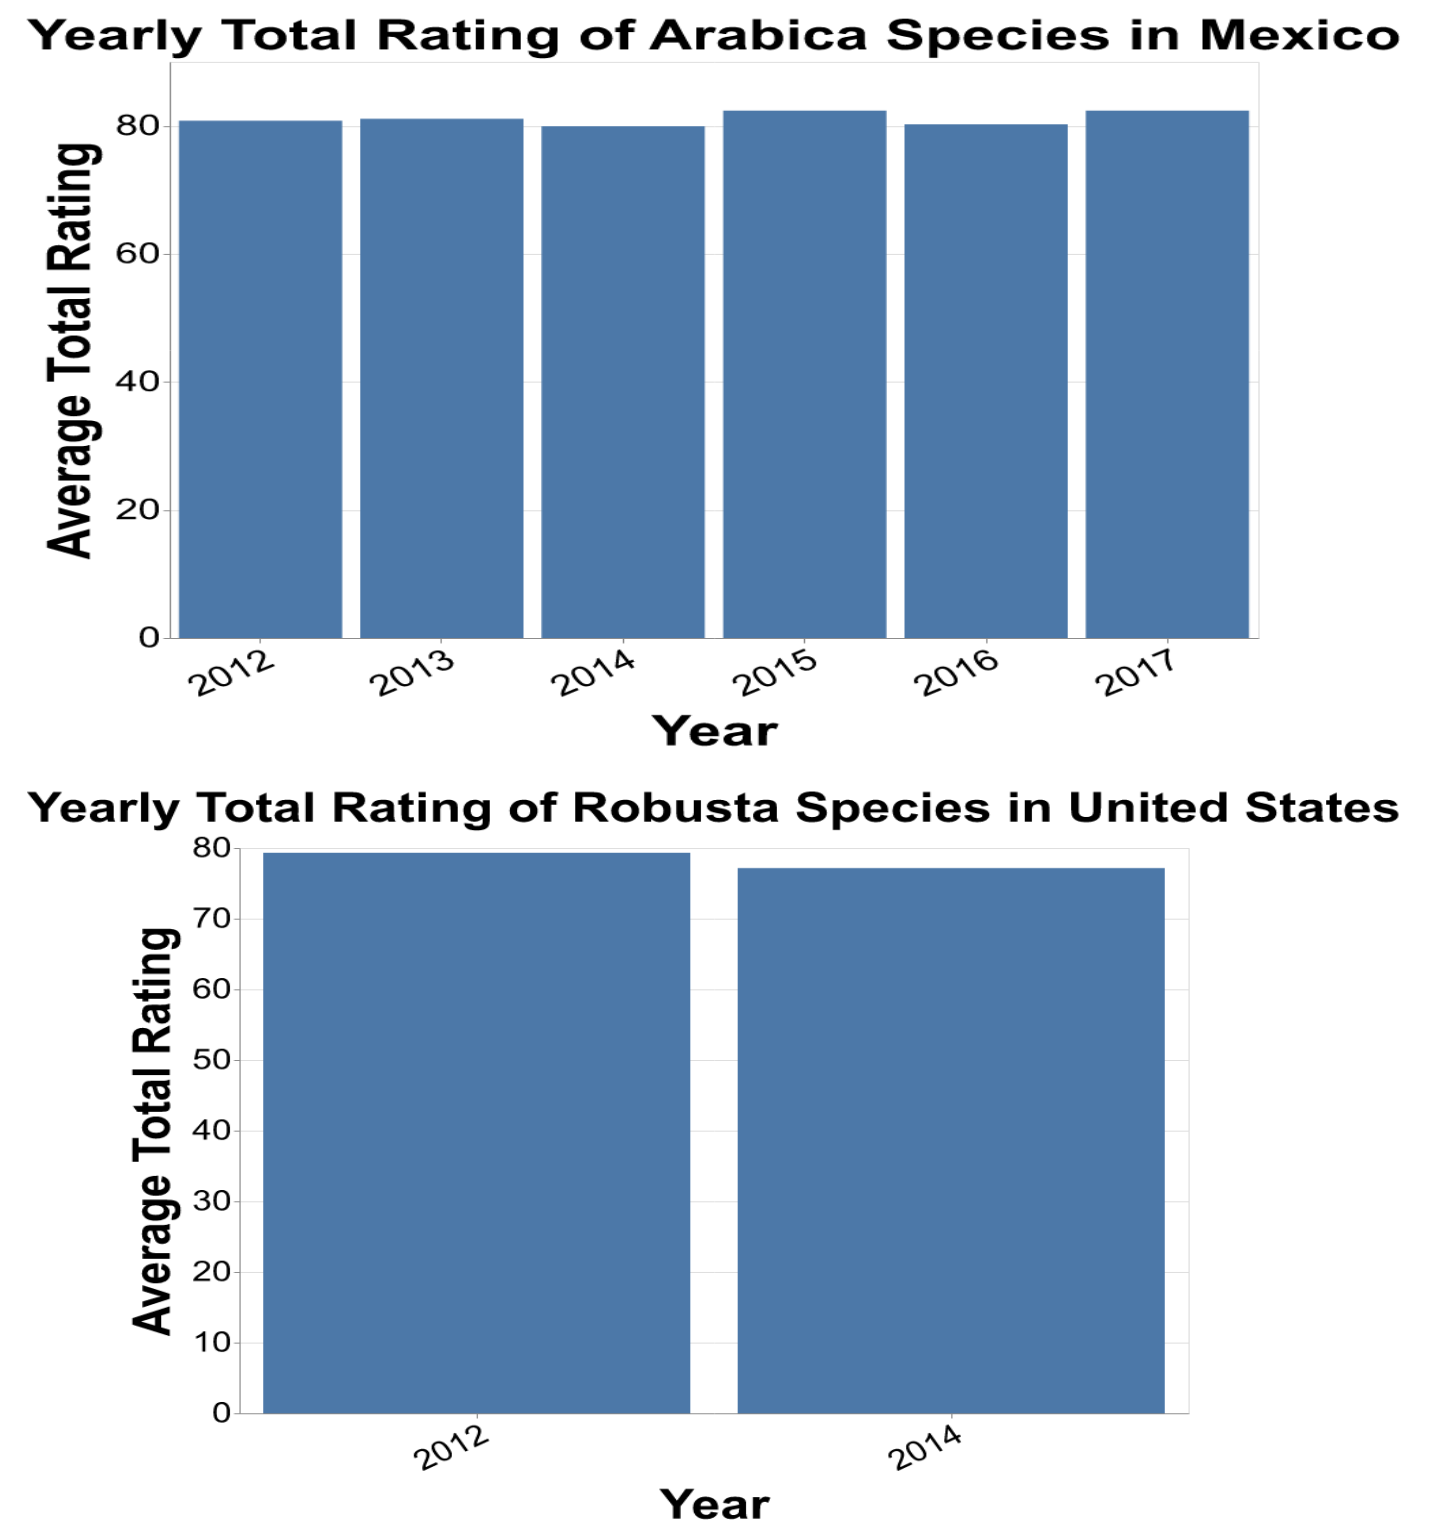

01 Average and lowest total ratings vary significantly across countries.

02 Total ratings fluctuate over years with clear top-performing years.

03 Species-specific ratings reveal detailed trends in top and bottom countries.

CONCLUSION

Coffee quality differs greatly among countries, with Ethiopia leading consistently. Ratings change yearly, showing distinct high-performance periods. Species-specific data uncovers unique trends in top and bottom countries. These insights help understand global coffee quality variations over time.